PDCCC’s Warehouse and Distribution Operations Career Studies Certificate program will provide students with the knowledge and skills needed for entry-level positions: a basic understanding of the concepts of warehouse and distribution operations; the equipment and procedures employed in operations, safety and security procedures; and the concept of working teams in a warehouse and distribution operations. Students will master basic warehouse tasks, including training on warehouse management system application software, the operation of lift trucks, and storage rack stacking in a working laboratory environment.

Financial Aid is available:
On Ramp
Pell Grant

Courses Needed for Program /Credits*:

BUS 100 Introduction to Business 3 credits
IND 137 Team Concepts/Problem Solving 3 credits
IND 193 Studies in Warehouse & Distribution 3 credits

TOTAL CREDITS: 9

*additional fee for textbooks

For more information, contact the Workforce Office at 757-569-6050 or email workforce@pdc.edu.